ORDER:

Government of India set up the Second Administrative Reforms Commission to suggest measures, to achieve a pro-active, responsive, accountable, sustainable and efficient administration across the country. The Second Administrative Reforms Commission has submitted 15 reports to Govt. of India on Administrative Reforms, which were in turn forwarded to State Governments and Union Territories for taking action. These reports cover wide ranging recommendations covering a very large spectrum of Policy and Governance.

2. In order to examine these recommendations and take follow up action, it has been decided to constitute a Core Committee under the Chairmanship of Chief Commissioner Land Administration to examine the cross cutting recommendations which cover more than one department.

3. Government after careful examination hereby constitute a Core Committee with the following members:

Chief Commissioner of Land Administration	-	Chairman
Special Chief Secretary to Govt.(GPM & AR) Dept.	-	Member
Special Chief Secretary to Govt. ( Finance Dept.)	-	Member
Principal Secretary , IT&C Dept.	-	Member
Secretary, Law Dept.	-	Member
Director General & Executive Director, CGG	-	Convenor

The Committee will examine the recommendations in detail and give its considered opinion on the feasibility of the adoption of the recommendation by the State Government. The Committee will also list out the follow up action to be taken for adoption of the recommendations including legislative amendments, structural changes, allocation of additional resources etc. The Committee can also coopt such other Secretaries as may be required for consultations. 4.

The Committee is requested to finalize and submit its report within three months. 5.
